Mr. Hubert W. Brown
Supervising Principal

Members of the Class of 1972, who are about to enter a bright, new world, be aware of the countless opportunities which lie before you. I have every confidence that it is, and will be, a bright world for you. It can be a new world too, if you exercise your talents to discover and to delve deeper into many different "Worlds."

The "World of Work" is of primary importance because there must be the satisfaction of a job well done before real pleasure is experienced. There is the "Spiritual World" with its hope for the future and aid for your fellow man. The "World of Recreation" is for health and well-being. Have you completed the "World of Education?" No, for education is a continuing process as training is necessary to keep abreast in your occupational field. Re-training may be required to make a desirable change in your vocation. Discover or rediscover the worlds of books, of travel and of hobbies; endeavors in these various fields will provide rich satisfaction to each who will attempt them.

My best wishes accompany you as you go forth this Commencement.

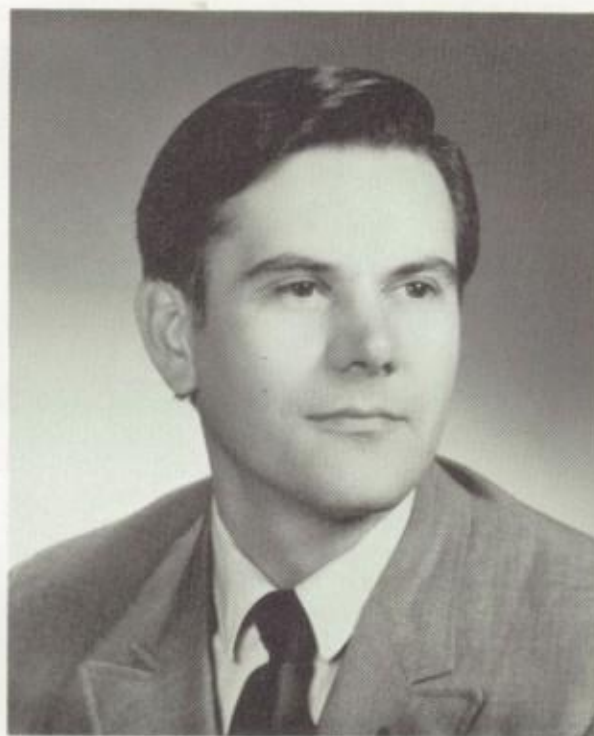

Hubert W. Brown

Each teacher and member of the various staffs holds an important position in the educational process of our school, but one person must bring these together and program an effective and workable system. Mr. Brown has had this responsibility for many years and has devoted a great deal of time and effort to make Clymer Central a successful place for learning. Every student has gained the responsibility of maintaining the respectability of the school, which has been set through Mr. Brown's guidance.

Mr. Frank W. Henry

Education Association

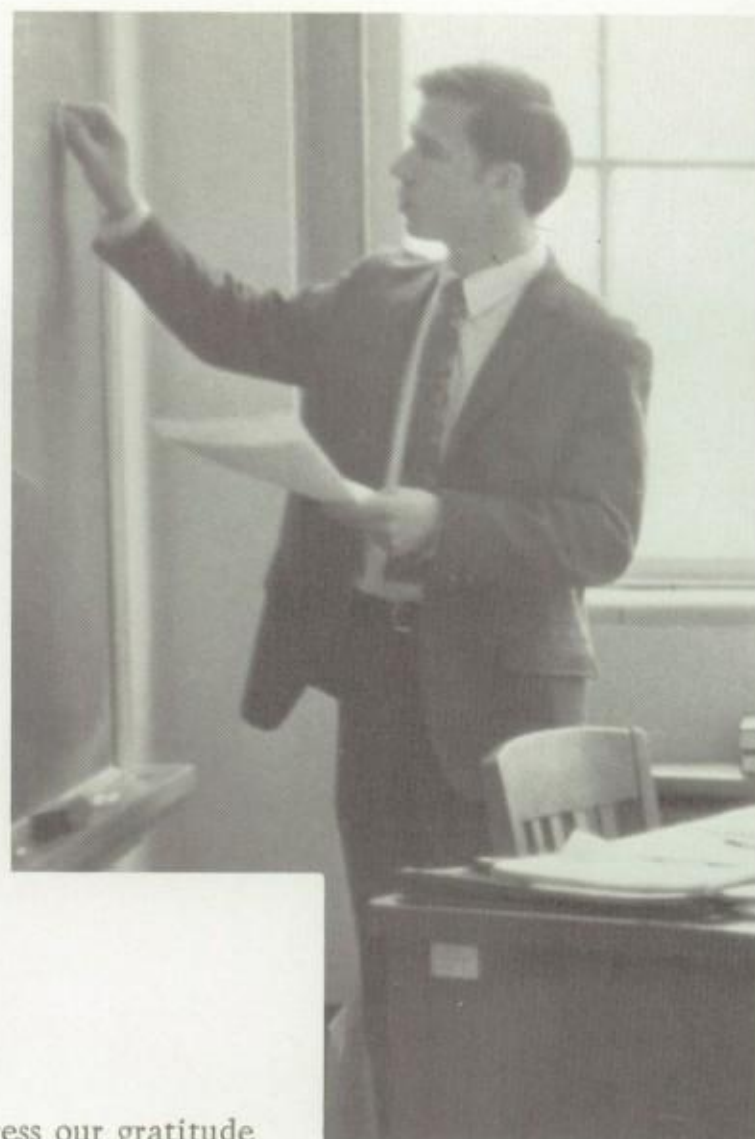

The Clymer Central School Education Association composed of teachers and administrators in Clymer Central School, provides the formal outlet for discussion of the every day happenings of our school. Through the leadership of Mr. Howard Cornell as President, Mr. Ken Sullivan as Vice-President, Mr. Jon Morgan as Treasurer and Miss Gloria Ranyak as Secretary, the organization strives to coordinate the thinking and actions to better the educational environment of the school system. Regular meetings, special events, and hard work by this organization help to formulate good educational policy and decisions that better our school.

Student Council

Each high school class has representatives on the Student Council. This organization functions to regulate and coordinate the student activities. Under Mr. Brown's supervision, the Student Council finances various beneficial scholarships and aids to foreign children. Advisor: Mr. Brown, President: Gregg Oster, Vice President: Jim Caflisch, Secretary: Peggy Briggs, Treasurer: Bart Neckers.

Dedication

There are no words adequate to express our gratitude and appreciation for the many things you have done for our class. Your advice, service and understanding have been invaluable to us. We know that the job of Class Advisor, supervisor of suppers and supporter of money-making projects is not an easy one, for there are many problems and details that need attention. Mr. Condon, we think you have done a very fine job and have helped us to base our decisions on reason and thought. The year has been a year we will all remember, and you will be a big part of that memory. It is to you, Mr. Condon, that we dedicate this Spotlight '72, as our way of saying, "Thank You".

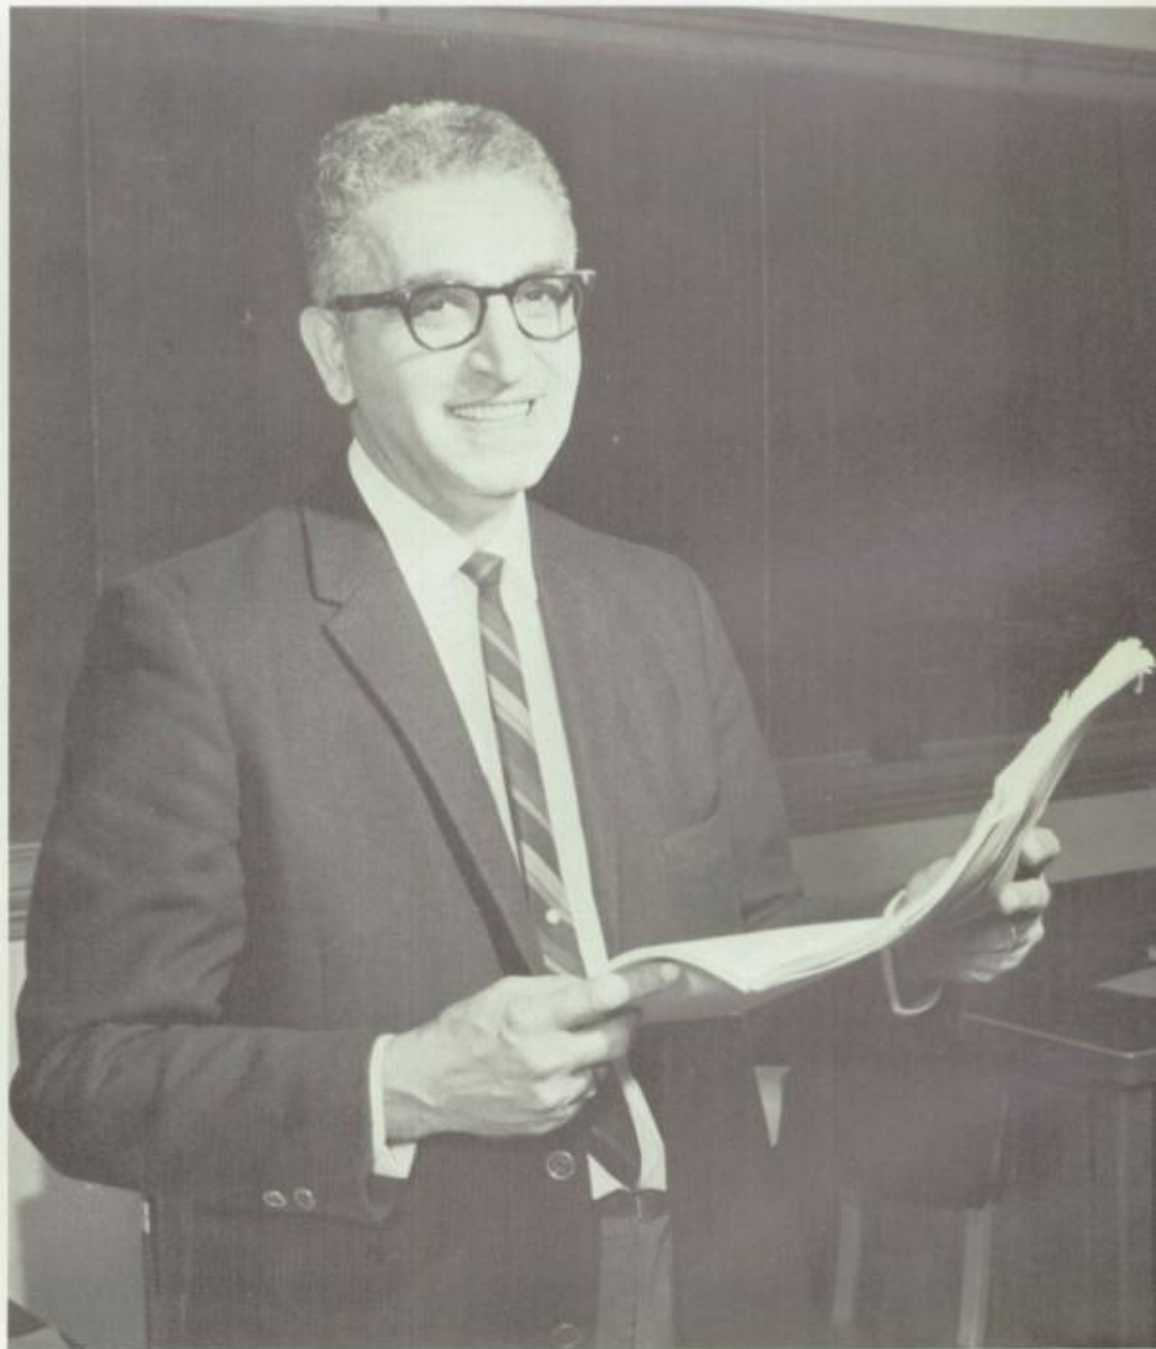

Memorium

To be glad of life, because it gives you the chance to love, work, play and look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your possessions, but not content with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and hatred, and to fear nothing except cowardice.

To be governed by your admiration rather than your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbors except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can with body and spirit in God's out-of-doors.

These were the guidelines used by Mr. Moses on his journey through life.

Special Services

Students must possess and learn to use the basic reading skills for success in education. Those pupils who need special attention in reading are aided by Mrs. Legters and Mr. McMullin. Their instruction produces a lasting effect on a student's correct reading ability.

A warm blanket and a soft cot awaits anyone who may become ill at school. Miss Lanston, the School Nurse is ready to assist any student with a health problem or administer first aid if any emergency arises. She also assists upon the completion of those awful admit slips.

It is necessary to determine the physical capability of each student in order that they may continue school routing. Dr. Williams, Sr., gives physical examinations and holds various clinics to the advantage of the students and the community.

As School Psychologist, Mrs. Rugg aids the pupils who may have mental or emotional concerns. By developing emotionally capable minds, the student adjusts to and becomes actively involved in school life.

Mrs. Duink, Mrs. Neckers and Mrs. Hinsdale have the important task of serving as teacher aids to the Elementary teachers. They assist the teachers in a para-professional way by aiding in individual instruction, register keeping and materials preparation. Their tasks aid the student by giving individual attention and more time is available to the teacher for teaching endeavors.

Mr. Bensink is more a father to each student here than a guidance counselor. His work is never ending and he is always there to help with problems. With his help, each student learns about himself and what he can do to make his life better.

Some students may have speech difficulties or defects. Mrs. Berg, the speech therapist, has the responsibility of recognizing and correcting these problems. Through various speech methods, the students eventually overcome their problems.

Tin Pan Alley

Continual planning and preparation of food for students and teachers is performed by the cafeteria staff. Classes are helped and advised for their suppers by the staff who readily volunteer services.

Our busmen have the daily responsibility of transporting students to and from school. There are many responsibilities in this line of work. Safety and precaution being essential. Discipline on the bus, just as in the classroom is needed. Ivan Heslink has the important job of maintaining our buses so they are always ready when needed.

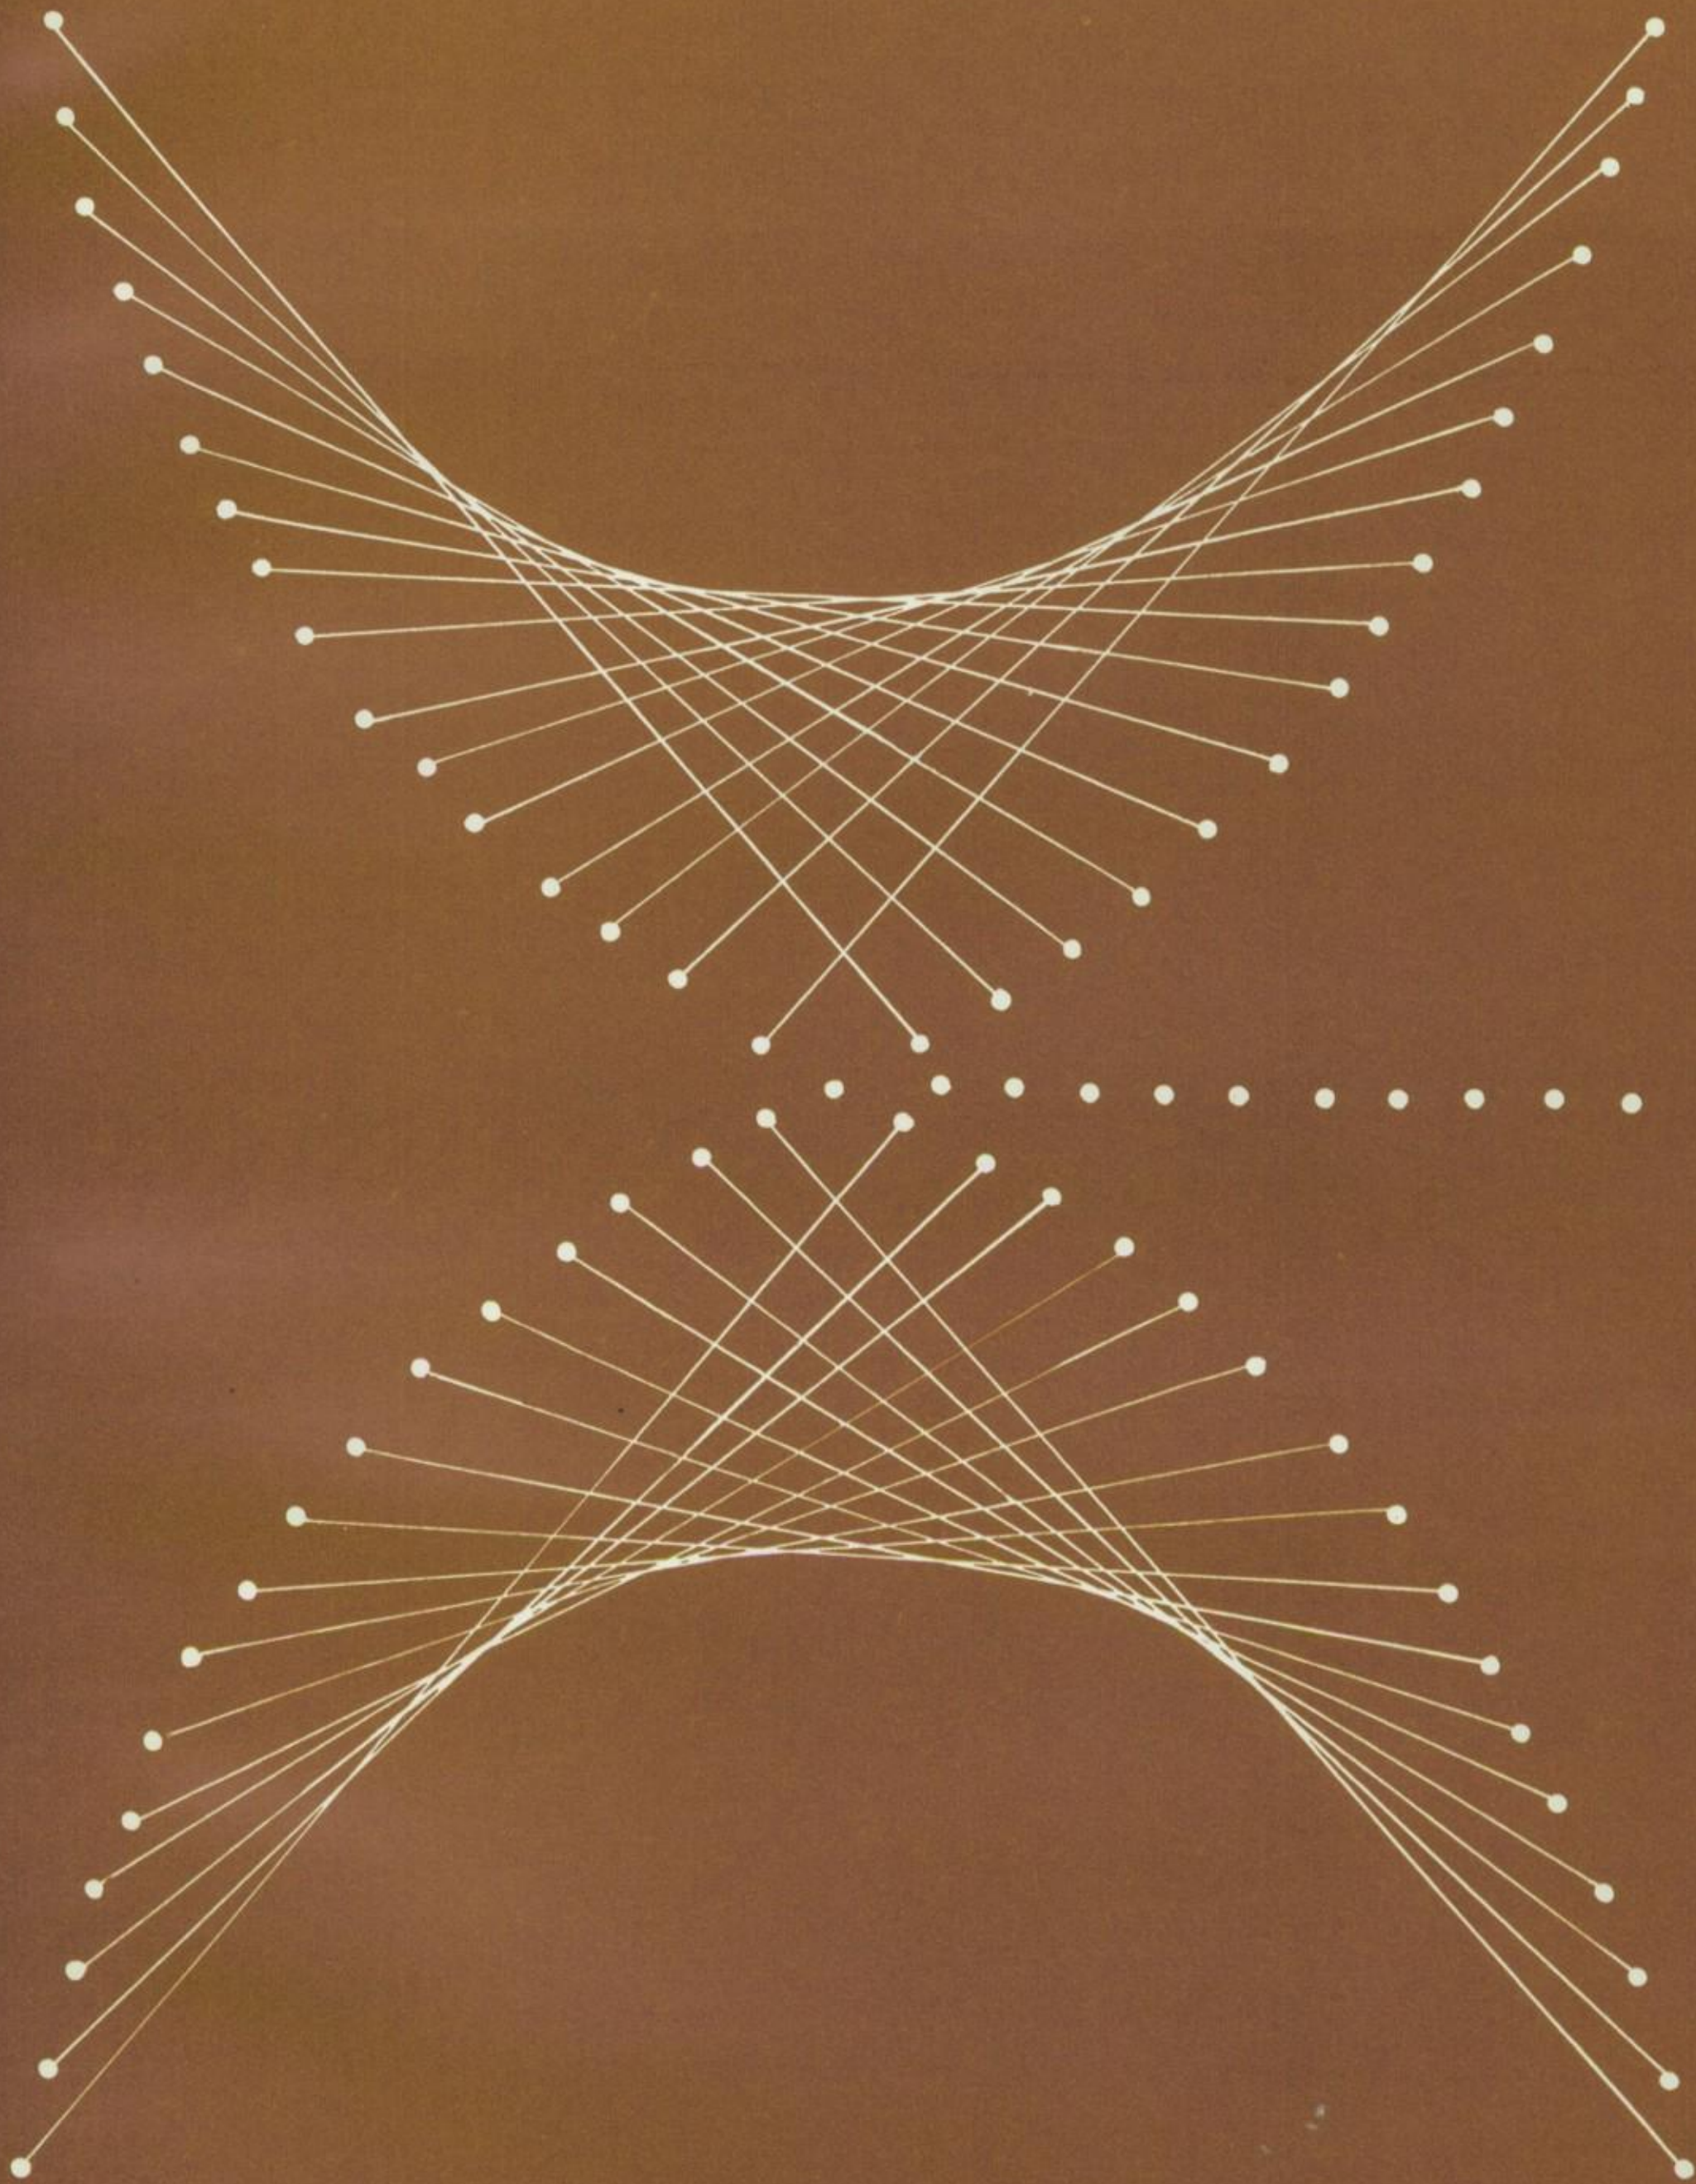

Our Men on the Go

As day breaks, the janitors must be ready for the various tasks ahead. Maintenance of the school for a comfortable place of learning is an important service they perform. While extra curricular activities take place, the janitors are on duty to solve needs or problems that may arise.

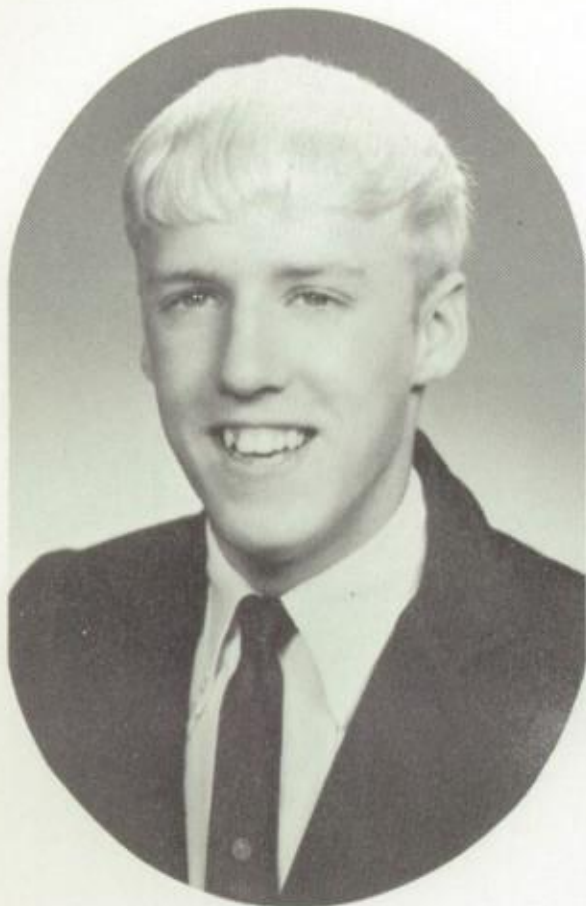

Each morning, rain or shine, when you come to school on foot, you are greeted by smile and "Good Morning". Mr. King is always there to assist in safely crossing the highway.

THOMAS JOHN LEPKOWSKI

We in Tommy's class are very lucky to have known and worked with him. If any of us ever needed extra help, Tommy was there, eager to lend a helping hand. Tommy taught us to smile no matter what the situation might be, and things always seemed better. Tommy's friendliness, concern for others and constant cheerfulness showed us how to care about others and how to make each day a little more worthwhile.

Occupational Education

Chautauqua County provides a program of technical training through BOCES, Board of Cooperative Educational Services. Some of the varied classes high school students may take are Food Services, Cosmetology, Health Services, Welding, and Auto Body Mechanics. These well planned curriculums enable the student to find employment in his field directly following graduation. BOCES has built a strong and growing foundation to develop students abilities in these vocational subjects.

Coach: Winner.

For the first time since 11-man football arrived at Clymer in 1962, the Pirates copped the title. The hard-nosed champs streaked to seven straight wins with an outstanding team effort. The potent Clymer offense racked up 193 points; Coburn rushed for 911 yards; Bailey tossed aeri- als account- ing for 512 yards of passes; Kranz ripped off 7.6 yards per carry and toed some crucial extra points. The Pirates forced Panama to "walk the plank" in an important clash of league leaders.

This year Clymer placed 7 players on the All-Conference team, an outstanding honor. Their names and positions are as follows: Steve Coburn, RB; Curt Bailey, QB; Phil Proctor, Off. End; Norvel Willink, Def. End; Jon Babcock, Off. T.; Wayne Te Culver, Off. G.; Ron Rothenberger, C.. In addi- tion, Gary White and Bob Weeks recieved honorable mention.

Junior High Chorus

"Make Your Own Kind of Music"

Senior Band

"From Bach to Rock" describes the variety of music the band plays. Individual practice, group work, band rehearsal sessions gives everyone the chance to develop his own thing. The diversity of this group aims it's performances to please all ages.

Marching Band

Excitement of a parade cheers everyone, but even more so, those who participate in it. Long hours of steady marching and practicing precede the final preparations before the parades. The colorful flags carried by the colorguard lead the members of the brass band with enthusiasm for that highly anticipated day.

Rock Band

The rock sounds of the younger generation are played by the group "The Eight of Us". The never ceasing practices have gained them popularity and led them to play at several dances and concerts. This year they are planning several concerts in Florida during Easter vacation.

"With a Voice of Singing"

Senior Chorus

Most people enjoy singing and that is projected by our chorus, whether they're singing a lively tune or a soft and delicate song. Four times a week the chorus works industriously to prepare for concerts, solo competition, and the Chautauqua Music Festival.

*Girls
Glee
Club*

Ambitious Freshman girls get together once a week to practice songs for the Christmas and spring concerts. This all girl chorus creates a new and refreshing sound.

Athletic

A goal of the Athletic Association is to support the "Pirates" and to encourage good sportsmanship. The Association tries to achieve success in sportsmanship and successful competition so as to compete strongly for the Becker Trophy.

The club's activities are: selling booster badges, sponsoring dances after home basketball games and presenting awards to the outstanding members of our Athletic teams.

Association

French Club

President:	Bill Hemink
Vice-President:	Lynda Shields
Secretary:	Ruth Adams
Treasurer:	Cheryl Aikens
Advisor:	Miss Jorgensen

Learning the French language and the culture of the French people is the main goal of the French Club. The club has various activities, including a bake sale, planned French dinner, and attended a French play in Buffalo.

Latin Club

President:	Michael Fardink
Vice-President:	Dawn Westley
Secretary-Treasurer:	Karen Boozel
Advisor:	Mrs. Legters

The Latin Club aids in a broader understanding of the Roman people, their lives, culture, and history. The club is engaged in various activities: playing games, viewing the movie "Julius Caesar", and money making activities are also included in their agenda.

Future Homemakers of America

The members of the Future Homemakers of America strive to improve their life in the community, and help better their homemaking skills. The club is engaged in various money making activities and also in helping the members achieve a degree of social poise and practice.

Future Farmers of America

The FFA tries to acquaint students majoring in agriculture with the national organization of FFA. The purpose of the club is to develop confidence, leadership, love of country, enjoyment of farming, and to encourage the members to improve agriculture. The club's activities include the Annual Jamboree, their Father and Son banquet, and a trip to Camp Oswegatchie. They help the community by decorating the town at Christmas and by assisting in the Mother's March of Dimes. Without the FFA, students could not enjoy the Christmas trees which the club supplies to each classroom.

Junior Syndicate

Under the directions of the editor, Beth Smith, and the co-editor, Darlene Buesink, the publication "The Junior Syndicate", contains items such as poems by the students, teacher surveys, gossip and special features. Advisors: Miss Jorgenson, Mrs. Neithemer.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a group of outstanding students who are chosen for the club on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The group's activities include planning for the induction of new members, a College Nite held for the benefit of Juniors and Seniors who are planning to go to college, and the promotion of scholarship in the school by the recognition of honor students.

Junior Play

New Year's Day proves to be Heyday at Hathaway's when the young salesman, George Ingle, comes up with a new eyecatcher which proves that ultraviolet light and a mannequin just don't mix; especially a new mannequin going from his world into the world of man. The action: Russ Lawrence and Peggy Briggs were Master and Mistress of Ceremonies. Ron Querreveld, Jr. Class President, extolled and praised the Seniors and Sara Robinson, Sr. Class President, responded. At twelve o'clock, everyone help to crown Norma Norcross and Brian Deuink as King and Queen, with Cindy Burnham and Mark Kranz as Prince and Princess. Music for the Prom was provided by the "Neil Charles Orchestra," and the beat for the After Prom by the "Holy Smoke." And so, as with Alice, from reality to a dream and back to reality.

*Mr. Brown
retires
after 46 years.*

The retirement of Hubert W. Brown, Supervising Principal of Clymer Central School District, was announced by Robert A. Fergus, president of the Board of Education, at a special meeting of the Board of Education, January 17, 1971. Mr. Brown's resignation was accepted with deepest regret by the board effective July 31, 1972.

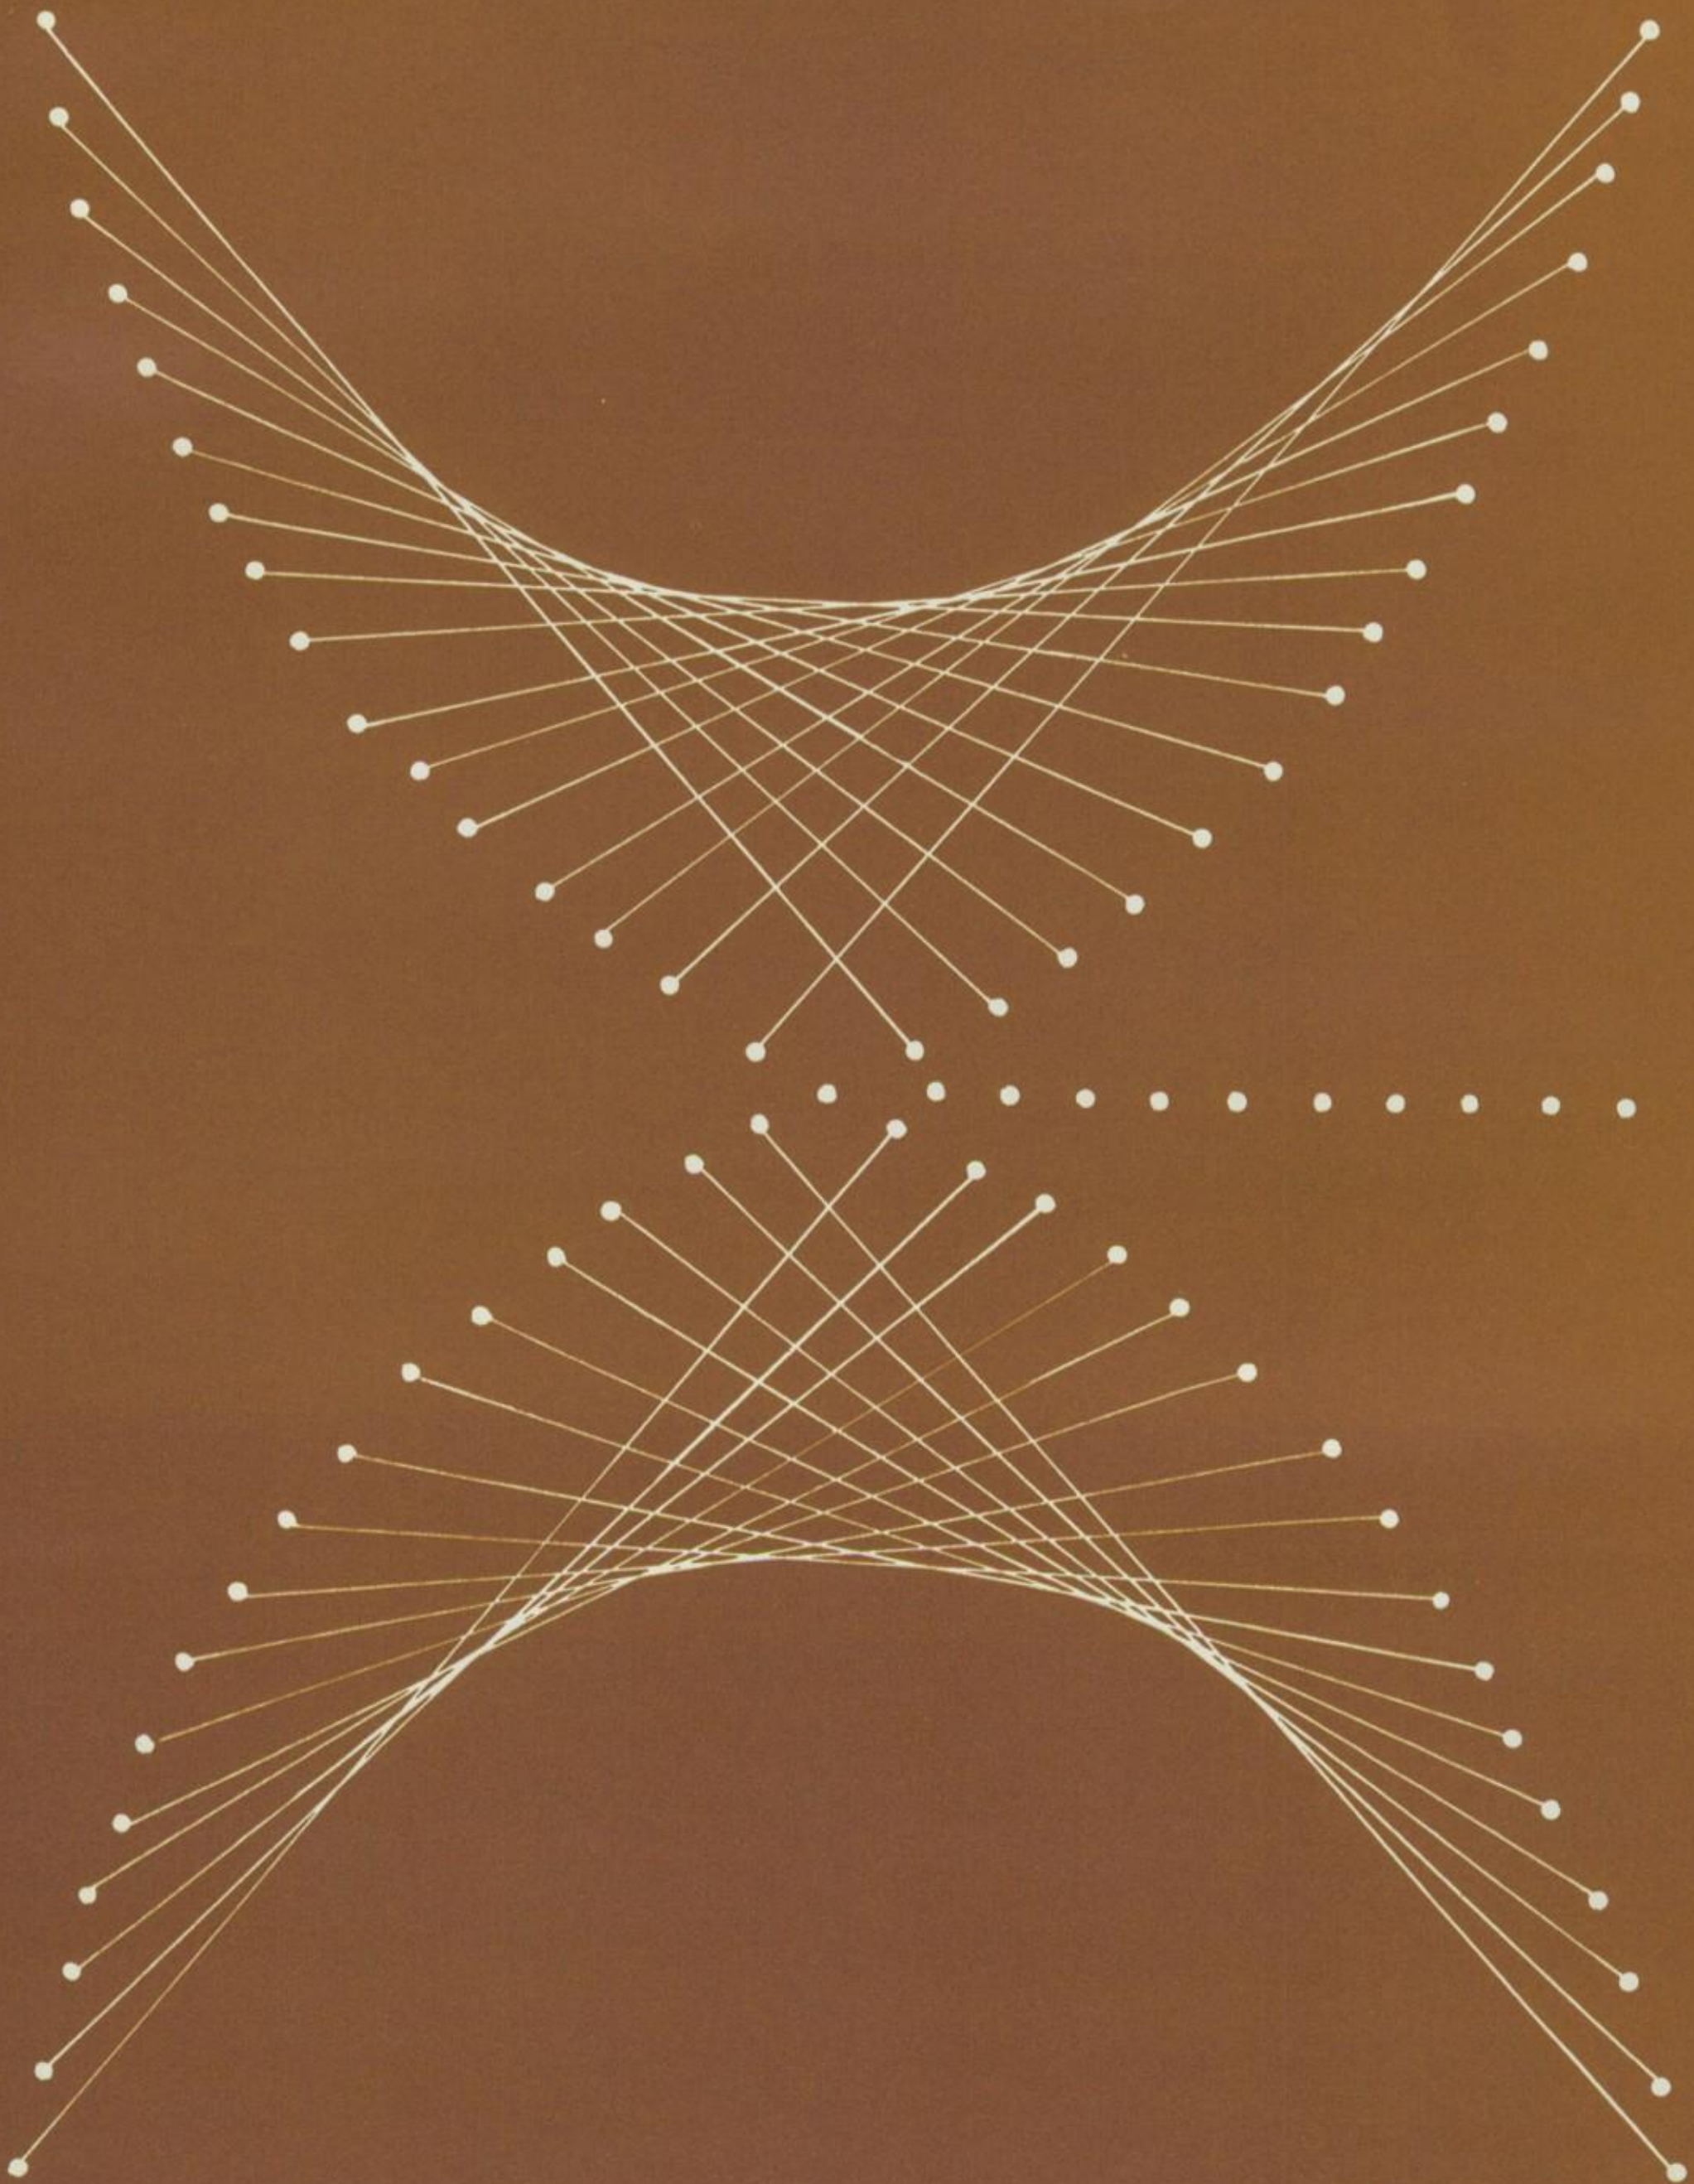

Mr. Brown began his career at Clymer Central School as a Business teacher in September 1935. He held the position of part-time Assistant Principal from March 1941 through August 1952 when he was elevated to the position of Supervising Principal. He was educated at the University of Rochester with a BA degree, received his MA degree from New York University and has taken additional graduate studies at Canisius College and the University of Buffalo.

He has been a member of the NYS Teachers Association for 35 years, also a member of the Chautauqua County Teachers Association, past president of the Allied Teachers Associations of Chautauqua County, past president of the Association of Chautauqua County Chief School Officers, and a member of the Chautauqua County Association of Educational Administrators.

Under Mr. Brown's leadership, two sizeable additions and constructions projects were completed at Clymer Central School, and a new Elementary School was built at Findley Lake. These projects included a new bus garage at Clymer and a new bus storage unit at Findley Lake.

The Class of 1972 wishes Mr. Brown a happy retirement.
